PARKING

Plenty of parking is available even if you cannot find a space in our lot. Additional parking will be available at Winchester Thurston School as well as street parking along Devonshire Street, Morewood Avenue, Ellsworth Avenue, and Bayard Street.

Additional accessible parking will be reserved in our parking lot. Congregants can also be dropped off at our porte cochere entrance.

Please Note: The Fifth Avenue entrance to our Main Sanctuary will be closed this year. Please only enter our building through our parking lot entrance.

We anticipate some road construction along Devonshire Street this fall, which may limit some parking in that area over the holidays.

COMFORT STATION

A registered nurse will be available during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services in the Kamin Dining Room comfort station by the reception desk. Visit any time during services for a beverage, snack, or place to rest.

Everything You Need to Know

TICKETS/RECIPROCITY

Your High Holy Days ticket is a symbol of your support for Rodef Shalom Congregation. Each member household in good standing will receive a ticket to attend holiday services via mail prior to the High Holy Days season. Estimated delivery is September 13. If you have questions about your membership, please leave us a message at 412-621-6566 x120 and we will be in touch.

Members in good standing who will be out-of-town for the High Holy Days may request a reciprocity form for any congregation affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ). Arrangements must be made in advance by contacting Kate Kim at kim@rodefshalom.org or 412-621-6566 x137.

Members of any URJ congregation may attend Rodef Shalom's services with the reciprocity form available from their congregation.

College students and members of the military are welcome as our guests without tickets. Please bring your college or military photo ID.

Members in good standing may request tickets for out-of-town family members and guests. A contribution of $36 per ticket is suggested.

Unaffiliated individuals may request tickets as well. A contribution of $360 per ticket is suggested.

SEATING

Doors to the Main Sanctuary will open 30 minutes prior to services. Ushers will be available to assist with seating.

HEARING DEVICES

Hearing enhancement devices are available in the Main Sanctuary. Please see an usher as you enter to receive one. If you have a T-Coil in your hearing aid, talk to your audiologist to ensure it is activated and on to receive the benefit of the hearing-aid loop in the Main Sanctuary.

CHILDCARE

Reservations required at RodefShalom.org/5785

Childcare for children preschool age and under is available during most services. To ensure a safe environment with the appropriate number of caregivers, reservations are required. Please RSVP by Monday, September 23 for Rosh Hashanah and Tuesday, October 1 for Yom Kippur.

Snacks will be provided. Brown bag lunches or additional snacks for your child(ren) are welcome. Parents/guardians must remain in the building.

For questions, please contact Ellie Feibus at 412-621-6566 x127 or feibus@rodefshalom.org.

NEW YEAR, NEW BABY

Did you or a family member welcome a baby into your lives since last Rosh Hashanah? Mazal tov! Please let us know so we can announce the names of all our 5784 babies at the Rosh Hashanah morning service.

To add a name, please contact Paige Saranovic by Friday, September 27 at 412-621-6566 x133 or saranovic@rodefshalom.org.

YIZKOR/MEMORIAL SERVICE

We will read the names of all of our beloved members and friends who died during the past year at our Yizkor service on Yom Kippur. Our list already includes the names of people whose funerals were conducted by a member of the Rodef Shalom clergy.

To add a name, please contact Paige Saranovic by Monday, October 7 at 412-621-6566 x133 or saranovic@rodefshalom.org.

SHANAH TOVAH

We had the pleasure of hosting a student rabbi this summer as our intern. Jules Ilian, a rising third year rabbinic student at Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion, joined us for seven weeks, and she likely taught us as much as we taught her! One of the things we heard often was, “that’s not the way that they teach us to do this at HUC.” It makes sense that the seminary has distinctly academic approaches to the ways rabbis and cantors “should” do things. But, we noticed that, in our own time outside of school (36 years for Rabbi Henry, four years for Cantor Glaser), we have been influenced by teachers and mentors we have sought out, the preferences of our congregants, and our own lived experiences.

One particular place we and Student Rabbi Ilian noted a difference between the academic ideal of HUC-JIR and our own practice at Rodef Shalom, has to do with silence. The philosophy at HUC is to move quickly, very quickly, from one prayer to another. “Keep the service moving” is the standard. In contrast, we have learned that there is value in the pauses between the words, and the notes. We appreciate the potential of silence to allow for fully absorbing one message, feeling, or melody before heading into the next.

The pauses, and silence, help us slow down.

Kohelet, the author of the Book of Ecclesiastes, teaches that there is a time for every human experience ... “a time for silence and a time for speaking.” When there is silence, if even for a moment, we allow ourselves respite from the endless stream of words and noise that surround us.

When we envision a Torah scroll, we usually see the letters themselves, written in black ink. Yet, the Talmud (Menachot 29a) rules that every letter in a Torah scroll must be completely surrounded by parchment. This means that the white parchment around the letters is an integral part of the Torah; without it, the Torah scroll is not kosher. Some even consider the white space to be a higher form of Torah, symbolic of the white fire of Sinai—a sublime, hidden Torah that we uncover when we patiently contemplate the entire picture—written and unwritten.

A famous composer¹ offers the counter-intuitive notion that “music is not in the notes, but in the space between the notes.” Similarly, the Polish pianist Artur Schnabel,² writes, “The notes I handle no better than many pianists. But the pauses between the notes—ah, that is where the art resides.”

² Artur Schnabel was an Austrian-American classical pianist, composer and pedagogue.

In fact, there is silence built into all of our services. In addition to the short pauses between prayers, we always include a moment of silent prayer at the end of the Tefilah, and sometimes an entirely silent Tefilah. This type of silence allows us to choose for ourselves—to either follow the written word, or “the direction of our own hearts.”

Our intention is that these High Holy Days be a pause in the midst of our busy lives, and the ever-present noise all around us.

We invite you to notice the pauses, to sit with them, and to see where your imagination takes you. We encourage you to set aside this time—the holidays themselves and the days in between to reflect on your life, your goals, your purpose, your dreams—with words and the silent spaces between the words.

May this be a good year for all of us, with times for silence as well as times for speaking.

Community Connection and Self Reflection

S'LICHOT

Saturday, September 28 | 7:30 p.m. in Levy Hall

Register to attend at rodefshalom.org/5785

Prepare for the magnitude of the Days of Awe as we hear from guest speaker Rabbi Michael Zedek, author of Taking Miracles Seriously: A Journey to Everyday Spirituality, followed by a dessert reception, and service with Rabbi Sharyn Henry, Rabbi Daniel Fellman, Cantor Toby Glaser, Cantor David Reinwald, and choirs from Rodef Shalom and Temple Sinai.

TASHLICH TWO WAYS

Thursday, October 3 | 3:30 p.m. in Lower Frick Park

Register to attend at rodefshalom.org/5785

TASHLICH is the traditional Rosh Hashanah ritual by which we symbolically cast away sins into a body of water and give ourselves a fresh start to the new year.

REVERSE TASHLICH transforms the ancient ritual to tackle the modern global issue of water pollution. Participants work together to remove potentially harmful debris from the water.

This year we will be joined by our friends from Temple Sinai as we perform a clean, litter-free means by which to cast away our sins, before setting out to clean up litter from the streams and streambeds in Frick Park. Meet in the Lower Frick Park parking lot by the soccer field ready to get dirty and maybe even a little bit wet. We will provide gloves, buckets, and snacks. All ages are welcome.

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

Sunday, October 6 | 11:00 a.m.

West View Cemetery, 4720 Perry Highway Road

As we prepare for a new year, we reflect on our past, remembering those no longer with us. Mark this season by joining Rabbi Sharyn Henry at Rodef Shalom's West View Cemetery for this brief and intimate service.

Information for Families

TOT SERVICE

For young children & their families

Rosh Hashanah Morning: Thursday, October 3

Yom Kippur Morning: Saturday, October 12

9:00 a.m. in Levy Hall

These 30-minute services are a wonderful introduction to the High Holy Days. Gather with Rabbi Larry Freedman and Jacob Shinder for music, prayer, and stories. No reservations needed. This service is open to members, guests, and unaffiliated families. Following the service, childcare is available so that the rest of the family may continue to worship at 10:00 a.m.

YOUTH SERVICE AND PROGRAM

For children in grades K–5

Rosh Hashanah Morning: Thursday, October 3

Yom Kippur Morning: Saturday, October 12

10:00 a.m. in Levy Hall

Our services and activities on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur mornings are designed to inspire and engage young students around the meanings and messages of the High Holy Days. On Rosh Hashanah, students will return for the blowing of the shofar at the main service in the Main Sanctuary.

Reservations required: rodefshalom.org/5785

Reservations required by:

- Monday, September 23 for Rosh Hashanah
- Tuesday, October 1 for Yom Kippur

CHILDCARE DURING SERVICES

For children preschool age and younger

See Page 7 for a full list of services.

Childcare available where marked with an asterisk *

We will care for your little ones so you can worship. Check in for childcare begins in our Berkman Family Center Preschool 30 minutes prior to services; pick up immediately following the conclusion of services.

Reservations required: rodefshalom.org/5785

Reservations required by:

- Monday, September 23 for Rosh Hashanah
- Tuesday, October 1 for Yom Kippur

TEEN VOLUNTEERS

If you are in 7th–12th grade and would like to volunteer at either or both of our youth services, please contact Yael Eads at eads@rodefshalom.org.

Volunteer requests must be received by Friday, September 20. We are not able to accept new volunteers on the day of the service.

Rodef Shalom Congregation donated
1,817 pounds
of pantry goods during last year's food drive.

HIGH HOLY DAYS FOOD DRIVE

Our Congregation collects food donations for the JFCS Squirrel Hill Food Pantry every High Holy Day season. This holiday tradition makes a significant impact for those in our community who struggle with food insecurity. Last year, our Congregation's donations accounted for a third of all food received during the Squirrel Hill Food Pantry's High Holy Day Food Drive.

TWO WAYS TO HELP

Fill a Bag: While attending holiday services, pick up an empty bag in our lobby with a list of most-needed items and return it before Simchat Torah.

Donate: Support our neighbors in need by making a tax-deductible donation directly to the Jewish Family and Community Services Squirrel Hill Food Pantry online at jfcspgh.networkforgood.com or by scanning the QR code.

VOLUNTEER AS AN USHER

Our volunteer ushers play a vital role in making our Congregation welcoming and accessible community. From greeting congregants, to passing out prayer books, and helping to direct people to their seats, our High Holy Day services happen because of our volunteers. Being an usher is a wonderful way to get involved, meet fellow congregants, and even make new friends! To volunteer, visit www.RodefShalom.org/5785 and fill out the volunteer registration form, or call 412-621-6566 x119.

B'MITZVAH

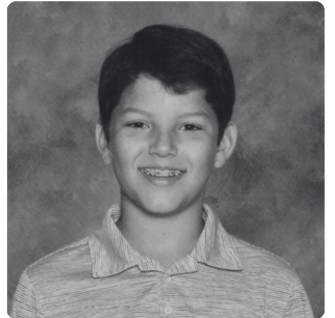

SOPHIE HARRIETT KAHN | OCTOBER 19

Sophie is a rising 7th grader at Winchester Thurston School and is an active member of the middle school cross country, basketball, and lacrosse teams. In addition to athletics, Sophie enjoys dancing and attending Emma Kaufman Camp each year. After a volunteer field trip last year, Sophie fell in love with the local organization, Our Giving Kitchen, dedicated to helping those with food insecurity by preparing individually packaged, ready-to-go dinners. Sophie volunteers regularly at Our Giving Kitchen to prepare meals for those in need, and she plans to donate a portion of her Bat Mitzvah gifts to Our Giving Kitchen.

DYLAN MICHAEL KUSHNER | NOVEMBER 2

Dylan Michael Kushner, son of Lauren and Jason Kushner, is the older brother of Logan Kushner and the grandson of Sandy and Louis Kushner and Sandi and Bernie Pinsker. He is currently in 7th grade at Shady Side Academy. Dylan has a passion for building and creating, excelling in activities including robotics, woodworking, and 3D printing. He is also an avid snow skier and water-skier. For his Bar Mitzvah project, Dylan is making a donation to Beverly's Birthdays from the proceeds of his lemonade stand, which he designed and built himself. Beverly's Birthdays provides birthday celebrations for children experiencing homelessness and for families in-need. Over the years, Dylan has been actively involved donating toys and volunteering in their warehouse.

EZRA ADELMAN | NOVEMBER 16

Ezra Adelman, child of Amy Sturtz and Joshua Adelman is an eighth grader at Pittsburgh Science and Technology Academy. They are the older sibling of Cora Adelman, and the grandchild of Carol Adelman and the late Alan Adelman of Harrisburg, PA; Roger Sturtz and Judy Zolensky of Carlisle, PA; and the late Linda Krouse of Harrisburg, PA. Ezra has a passion for all things science, Minecraft, and is an active member of BSA Troop 109. They love spending time with their friends and their cats, Moth and Möbius.
